DESCRIPTION

Officer Level Leadership is an intensive and dynamic three-day course designed for first-level law enforcement professionals who do not yet hold rank. FTO's, corporals, and line-level professional staff are encouraged to attend. Focused on developing emerging and informal leaders, the course enhances leadership skills and principles to meet public expectations. Through interactive training, participants gain the tools to strengthen their leadership style and grow within their organizations.

Topics will include:

- Mindfulness & Organizational Ownership
- Understanding leadership
- Duty to intervene
- De-escalation using the DISC + LIST system
- Communication and Motivation
- Followership

PRESENTER

Capt. Tim Plotts (Ret.)
Consultant

Captain Tim Plotts (Ret.) served 30 years with the North Carolina State Highway Patrol, retiring as a troop commander. An early FBI-LEEDA instructor, he has delivered more than 275 leadership courses nationwide. He holds a Bachelor's in Criminal Justice from Western Carolina University and a Master's in Leadership and Management from Montreat College, as well as completing the Southern Police Institute's Administrative Management Program and the FBI National Academy.

Recognized for his leadership, Captain Plotts received the inaugural William G. Hyatt Leadership Award and the Meritorious Service Award. He also helped establish the Western North Carolina Law Enforcement Leadership Academy. Today, he serves as a volunteer rapid response Chaplain and enjoys time with family and friends.
